

SKWT Blog Posting Schedule

September 2025 – September 2026

	Date	Story idea
1.	5 Sept	Climate resilience farming: what smallholders are teaching us
2.	20 Oct	The Restoration Alliance
3.	10 Nov	The Chesongoch Landslides
4.	5 Jan	New year, new season: SKWT's 2026 restoration goals
5.	26 Jan	What is Assisted Natural Regeneration (ANR) and why it's cheaper than planting
6.	2 Feb	Wetlands Day tie-in: why Elgeyo Marakwet's water towers matter downstream
7.	16 Feb	What is FMNR (Farmer Managed Natural Regeneration)?
8.	23 Feb	Tree nursery diaries: from seedling to sapling
9.	13 Apr	TerraFund restoration sites: an early progress photo essay
10.	22 April	Partnering with FAO: what the GCP/GLO/1208/GER project funds
11.	25 April	Meeting Local Leaders and Cooperative Officials in Soy North and Soy South
12.	3rd May	Farmer training day recap: agroforestry techniques that work
13.	16th May	Spencer Line Management Plan: mapping a landscape under pressure
14.	11 May	Bees, a biodiversity hotspot
15.	18 May	Endangered Species Day: what regeneration means for wildlife corridors
16.	25 May	Africa Day feature: SKWT's place in the AFR100 initiative
17.	5 June	World Environment Day special
18.	16 June	Integrated Landscape Management: the Spencer Line
19.	19 Aug	Meet Mama Miriam: the avocado agroforestry story on the Spencer Line
20.	22 Jun	Kipkabus PFMP: from draft to community validation
21.	29 Jun	Mid-year review: FAO output progress across all three workstreams
22.	6 Jul	Photo essay: the changing face of the Spencer Line catchment
23.	13 Jul	Q&A with an FAO technical contact on landscape restoration monitoring
24.	20 Jul	Beneficiary spotlight: a farmer's honest take on agroforestry
25.	27 Jul	Data storytelling: what the KoBo beneficiary numbers actually show
26.	3 Aug	What we have learned in reviewing Kipkabus PFMP and FMA
27.		Inside the Kipkabus PFMP review: what a forest management plan actually involves
28.	10 Aug	Community-led restoration: who decides what gets planted where
29.	16 Mar	Women in conservation: voices from the Kipkabus CFA
30.	24 Aug	Dry season lessons: water management on the Spencer Line
31.	31 Aug	Forest governance explainer: what a CFA does day to day
32.	7 Sep	International Literacy Day tie-in: community training materials that work
33.	14 Sep	Season wrap: nine months of restoration in numbers
34.	30 Mar	Digital monitoring: how KoBo data keeps our beneficiary list honest 35.
36.		